Jonathan's Jottings

Position Yourself Prayerfully

In the book of Acts, we witness the tremendous outpouring of power as the Holy Spirit clothes the Apostles for the purpose to which they have been called; to proclaim the excellences of Christ to all the nations. We are reminded that this happens because the Apostles have responded with obedience to the command of Christ: That they wait in Jerusalem until they receive the promise of the Father.

The Apostles wait in expectation.

Just like the Apostles, we also should share in this same sense of anticipation... but what does the waiting look like? If we long to see a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our lives and across our communities – what does our waiting, our anticipating look like?

Time and time again in the book of Acts we see how prayer precedes power as the Spirit moves. Luke tells us that the apostles devoted themselves to prayer as they awaited the outpouring of Pentecost (Acts 1:14). When Peter and John's friends gathered with them upon their release from prison they prayed fervently and then the whole place shook as they were filled afresh to boldly proclaim the gospel (Acts 4:31). The church was earnestly praying when God moved to release Peter from prison (Acts 12:5). These are not isolated incidents.

If we have hearts that long to see God's Spirit sweep across our communities, across the hills and across this land then let us position ourselves prayerfully.

Let us, like the early church, be devoted to prayer and wait upon the Lord.

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.

And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ. Colossians 4:2-3
